In 2017, we requested independent status 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) of the IRS. We have built a long-term progressive power across the country, supporting a network of community groups with civic education, strategic guidance, organizational support and leadership training and development. In response, we formed a relationship with two non-profit incubators AcA Tides and The Advocacy FundAcA A4. Indivar served as a Sa^nior Policy Consultant at the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, focusing on budget and tax policies and low-income cross-cutting issues. Throughout 2017, as the Indivisible movement spread and grew, our organizational strength also took place, with the crucial support of these two incubators. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (D) criticized the controversy on Twitter, calling it "extremely divisive and damaging to the party." The Incredible Project is an organization that can make advocacy a prime part of its work and engage in some electoral politics.[4] Undivided Price was launched in 2018. Undivided citizens will focus on the construction of progressive long-term infrastructure and the strengthening of a culture of civic participation.
